

Senior Public Health Analyst (Team Lead) position opening within HRSA's Public Health Branch

The Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), created in 1982, is an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and the primary Federal agency for improving access to health care services for people who are uninsured, isolated or medically vulnerable. In support of this mission, HRSA's Bureau of Health Professions (BHP) works to ensure a highly skilled health professions workforce.

BHP is seeking applicants to serve as a Senior Public Health Analyst (Team Lead) in the Public Health Branch of the Division of Public Health and Interdisciplinary Education.

The Bureau of Health Professions (BHP), Division of Public Health and Interdisciplinary Education (DPHIE) provides leadership and serves as the principal focal point for the Agency and the Bureau for increasing the public health workforce, interdisciplinary health professions issues and programs, including geriatric training, and research activities to increase the diversity of the health professional workforce.

The applicant must possess and/or have demonstrated a high degree of public health prominence and expertise, especially related to public health workforce development and training. The applicant must demonstrate:

- The ability to apply a range of laws, policies, and research relevant to public health workforce development, education and training;
- Experience in evaluating public health workforce programs and developing performance measures to demonstrate impact;
- Experience developing, coordinating, and managing public health initiatives;
- The ability to prepare reports and present information to high level private industry, local, state and federal government officials, or other government agencies; and
- Experience developing partnerships with federal, state, tribal and local public health agencies and schools of public health.

This Team Lead position is located in Rockville, Maryland. The annual salary ranges from $105,211 to $136,771.

I would appreciate your considering this important position or bringing it to the attention of individuals you think qualified. HRSA is an equal opportunity employer and we encourage applications from a diverse pool of high quality candidates, including women, minority groups, and those with disabilities.
