THE AFFORDABLE CARE ACT
BENEFITS INDIAN COUNTRY

The Health Insurance Marketplace benefits American Indian and Alaska Native (AI/AN) people by providing opportunities for affordable health care coverage. This coverage can be a private health plan purchased through the Marketplace. AI/ANs are screened for Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) eligibility when they apply for coverage through the Marketplace. Through CHIP, grandparents can ensure their grandchildren's health care is covered.

KEY POINTS TO REMEMBER

The Marketplace provides more choices and control over your health insurance options.

There is no cost or risk to check your eligibility in the Marketplace.

Members of federally recognized Tribes can enroll monthly.

You can continue to receive services from your current Indian health providers.

Enrolling in the Marketplace or Medicaid helps strengthen the Indian Health Service programs and services in Tribal communities.
